

Local Matters.

Friday Morning, 11:15: May 13, 1859.
Subscriptions to the CAMPAGNE APPEAL begin to come in rapidly. We are induced to a slight increase in our office. The prospects are that we shall have a very large list by the 25th inst., when the subscriptions commence, which is our desire; as the information we shall disseminate this summer will be of great and lasting influence upon the Presidential race next year.

MR. ISAAK NEILL has a desirable negro woman for sale. See advertisement.

JOHN CALHOUN CLAY, Esq., the "Baldwin" correspondent of the Louisville Courier, is in the city.

THURSDAY.—We thank Mr. Herdon, of that splendid audience, Addison's Express, for late New York news.

JOHN JONES, V. WEIRICH, of the 3d, Congressional District, is now in the city. He returns to his home this evening, on the return train of cars.

ADMITTED TO BAIL.—Patrick Fitzpatrick, who was committed to jail in Jefferson last night, was released on bail yesterday.

THE FABRICATIONS OF THE NEW TESTAMENT will be on exhibition at Old Fellow's Hall this and to-morrow evening. The subject is an enteraining and interesting one.

RESCUE'S COURT.—The records disclosed of nine cases yesterday, and assumed dates to the same, were all of the highest importance. See newspaper for details.

ALL THESE are want of five furniture, should be in attendance this morning, at 10 o'clock. M. C. CAYER & Son have a large quantity on hand, and it might be well.

THE Fair of the tailors of the First Baptist Church, at Old Fellow's Hall, closed yesterday evening. It was one of the most successful entertainments of the kind ever given in the city.

DR. HOWES.—Thomas F. Marshall, of Kentucky, will lecture this (Friday) evening, at the Giley Theatre, on the great men of the seaboard's "reform." Chay, Webster and Calhoun.

INQUIRIES.—Enquiry—How was called upon yesterday to hold an inquest on the body of an infant, found floating in the river at the foot of Court Street? The little soul was evidently dead, and the verdict of the jury was that the body was that of an infant.

FRIDAY.—The siren of a long night about 10 o'clock, was caused by the burning of a frame stable belonging to M. S. Hunsicker, on the Raleigh road. Nothing but the roof and the exterior of the stable was destroyed. The fire was the work of an incendiary.

CITY SCHOOL.—There will be a weekly examination of the primary schools of Misses Yancey, and Miss Creighton, at the corner of Gaynor and Second streets, to-day (Friday) between the hours of eight and twelve in the morning. The friends of the schools are specially invited to witness the examination.

Business Notices

SOUTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY.—All stockholders must make the advance of 50 cents per share upon their stock, and send their certificates to D. C. Wilder, President, or Wm. M. T. Moore, Vice-President, who have been deputed with power and unconditional understanding, that all should be made to pay—thereby enabling the President and Directors to free the company of all expense in every item incident to the construction of the road.

TO THE REVEREND CLARENCE COOPER, who has written to me concerning your new and important tobacco market in Mobile, I will say, without exception, advertising, all property where you have a large quantity on hand, and it might be well.

WE would especially call the attention to the advertisement in another column, headed "to drugmen." The gentleman advertising is a druggist, and has no right to furnish the best of references. His education as a pharmacist, was had at Philadelphia, and he can furnish testimonials from there, as well as Memphis, of a adequate competency.

THE DEAD OF THE ST. NICHOLAS.—Several bodies have been found recently in the vicinity of the scene of the disaster to the steamship St. Nicholas, and the remains of those who were lost are yet to be identified. The effects of the Daniel Bassett, which sank suddenly, report that not less than twenty bodies (almost entire) were recovered from the water in the vicinity of Goss' Point's plantation, Capt. Halliday, of the Parrot, reported that they discovered two bodies a short distance below Helena, which were identified as the remains of the crew of the Daniel Bassett, whose lives were lost in the general disaster.

Capt. WATSON, of the Victoria, employed a sufficient number of persons to repair to the place and take charge of the remains. The body of Capt. Halliday was found near the V. G. Goss, was found in the vicinity of Helena, and brought to this city by the steamer Floresta last evening. It will be sent to St. Louis for interment.

THE FIREWORKS PARADE.—This morning, at nine o'clock, the annual fireworks display was formed, and passed through the entire city. The show will be a fine one; every effort has been made to fit it up in a style suited to the occasion. The show will appear in their usual grand manner, and the spectators will be greatly delighted, and other objects will be introduced that will add materially to the beauty and fascination of the spectacle.

THE FEDERAL ARSENAL.—The public will be pleased to learn that the parade of the 1st of June will be a grand affair, and will be conducted in the same style as the previous one, with a great deal of interest.

ASSIGNEES.—A few days ago, we received a copy of the Advertiser, containing a notice of the removal of James C. Atkinson, and his wife, from Philadelphia, to New York. We are induced to believe that they have determined, what will be their destination, and will be gone for some time.
